RULES and REGULATIONS

1. Only TWO pets TOTAL in the show per exhibitor.
2. Only ONE pet per exhibitor in any division. Any animal entered in a division should be entered in all classes within the division, with the exception of the Promotion division. In the Promotion division, one animal can be entered in either Pet Promotion or 4-H Promotion, but not both. An exhibitor can enter both Pet Promotion and 4-H Promotion classes as long as different animals are used for each.
3. All pets must be able to be handled by the exhibitor. Additionally, all dogs, cats, and rabbits must be able to be touched by the judges.
4. All dogs and cats must have a current rabies certificate. All poultry, rabbits, equines and livestock must have a self certification form. All poultry must have a certificate of current MDA test requirements and be banded. All rabbits MUST be tattooed. The rabbit club has generously offered to tattoo rabbits free of charge on the last Saturday workday before fair. All pets must be vaccinated, as appropriate, according to their species. Dogs should be vaccinated for DHLPP, Rabies and Parvo; cats should be vaccinated for RCP and Rabies. All equine species require a negative coggins. Copies of all veterinary health certificates must be presented at time of registration.
5. All pets, except dogs, must be confined to appropriate containers or pet carriers. All dogs must be on a 6 foot leash and controlled. No prong collars or Flexi-leashes allowed. No costumes except during the Promotion division.

6. All pets must have access to their own water dishes while at the show.
7. Cats and dogs must be four months of age or older. Other pets: three months of age or older.
8. Judging: 30% Health and Condition (coat, skin, eyes, weight, etc.); 20% Disposition, 20% Personality; 20% Appropriateness of age of 4-H'er; and 10% Individual Class specifications (see classes listed below).
9. Animals competing in other 4-H departments cannot compete in the Pet Department.
10. Pet owners will be held responsible for their pet's conduct while on the Fairgrounds.
11. Dogs will need a special pass to be allowed through the Fairground's gates. Exhibitors are to keep their pass with them while their dog (s) are on the grounds. Dogs must be off grounds by ending time on the dog pass.
12. Any dog requiring a muzzle will not be allowed in the Pet Show.
13. If a pet bites either a person or animal, it will be immediately disqualified. The owner must go immediately to the Fair Office to file a report and then promptly remove the animal from the premises.
14. Following the Pet Show, pet owners should take their animals home as soon as possible. If you want to return to the Fair, have your hand stamped before leaving for same-day free re-entry.
15. Ferrets, wild, non-domesticated, and animals deemed by the Superintendent to be inappropriate for use by a child as a pet will not be allowed.
16. Except as noted below, all pets shown must be owned by the 4-H'er or his or her immediate family, and must have been so owned for at least the preceding two months.

PROMOTION CLASSES

See rules under "Promotion Classes" in the general rules and regulations 4-H Agricultural Department. A 4-H'er may enter in both Class 1 and 2 of Division 7 as long as a different animal is used for each class of the Promotion Class.

17. Promotion classes are meant to be fun classes for the participant and educational to the public. The 4-H members and their animal dress in coordinating or complementary costumes. Animals need not be owned by the exhibitor but must meet health regulations for that species to show.
18. Costumes to be created by the 4-H'er.
19. Each exhibitor must prepare a script or narration to accompany his or her exhibit. The script is limited to one page double space (12 pt.). The Script should promote the species or 4-H and its connection to the costume's theme. Participants name, age, costume title, and Class (4-H or Pet) should appear at top of script. PLEASE NOTE: Scripts that do not adhere to this rule will be adversely affected in the judging of the entries.
20. A copy of the script should be emailed to the Superintendent prior to Sunday, August 11.
21. A hard copy of the script is to be turned in to the Superintendent at check-in time. The script will be read
